Duryea “Juice” Taylor Earns Certification as Registered Building Service Manager (RBSM)

Greensboro, North Carolina, USA, October, 2011 – Duryea “Juice” Taylor, Quality Assurance Manager, Supreme Maintenance Organization recently earned certification as of Registered Building Service Manager (RBSM) by the Building Service Contractors Association International (BSCAI). This designation is the most prestigious symbol of excellence for building service contracting personnel. The designation was conferred by Sally Schopmeyer, CBSE, 2011 President of BSCAI, and Paul Greenland, CBSE, Chairman of BSCAI’s Registration Board.

The RBSM program aids the public by designating those in the building service contracting industry who have applied for and met BSCAI’s high standards of competence and qualifications. Juice joins an elite group of Registered Building Service Managers found worldwide, all of whom have satisfied stringent criteria and have passed a rigorous examination. Subjects covered in the RBSM examination include: Carpet Care, Chemicals and Chemistry, Customer Relations, Employee Training, First Aid, Floor Care, Problem Solving and Quality Control, Safety & Fire, Security, and Technology of the Industry.

The BSCAI has a special Certification and Registration Board, which administers the RBSM program. This Board is composed of BSACI members holding the CBSE designation who are appointed by the President of BSCAI with the approval of the BSCAI Board of Directors. For more information about the BSCAI and the RBSM program, go to www.bscai.org and look for CERTIFICATION - REGISTERED BUILDING SERVICE MANAGER (RBSM) under their EDUCATION tab.
